Arising out of case crime No.2 of 2005
Under Sections 498-A, 304B IPC
P.S. Devayal
District Almora

Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri Sidhartha Bisht learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. Learned counsel for the applicant contended that the statement of Smt. Rama Devi shows that two demands of Rs.10,000/- and Rs.5000/- were made by the husband of the deceased. It was further contended that there is no averment against the present applicant. The applicant is the mother-in-law of the deceased and the allegations against her are vague and general in nature. The case of the present applicant is different from the case of husband. The present applicant-Naruli Devi is aged about 62 years. Considering the contentions, facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Magistrate concerned.
